The MEXICONIAN

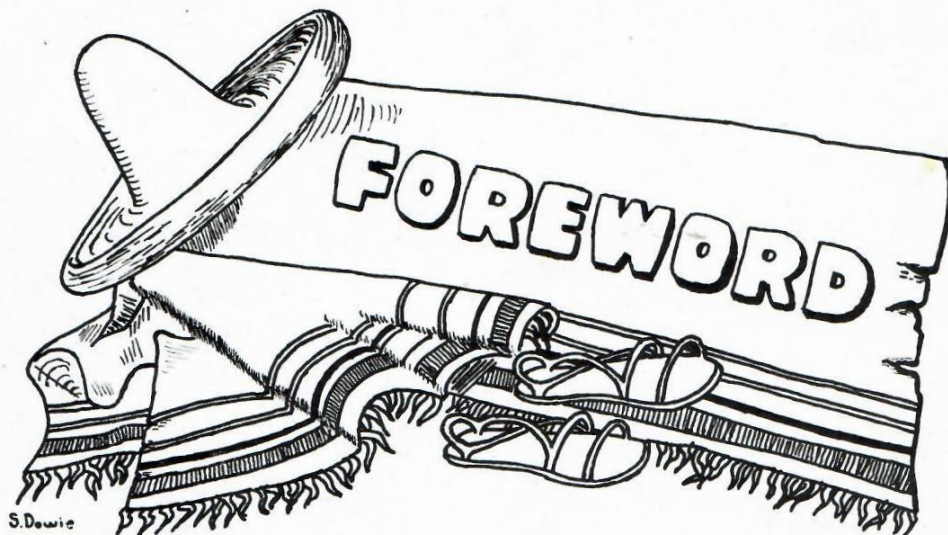

Nineteen hundred fifty-one

Volume CXII

Published by the Senior Class
MEXICO ACADEMY AND CENTRAL SCHOOL
Mexico, N. Y.

In presenting the 112th volume of the MEXICONIAN, the editors wish to show what happens during the school year. An attempt has been made to present, in picture and story, the significant events in everyday school life so that everyone can see the various activities that go to make up the educational opportunities at MACS.

Naturally, all of this would have been impossible without the full cooperation of the administration, faculty and student body. Especially, the editors wish to thank all these groups as well as townspeople whose continued support makes this book possible.

SALUDOS AMIGA

We, the class of 1951, by dedicating this year book to Mrs. Helen Moore, wish to show our deep appreciation for her continual cooperation and guidance extended to us through our high school years. There are many things for which we are indebted to this lady, many things that go to make up our complete school education but which must go unnamed because of their intangible nature.

However, the warm smile with which she greets each one of us as we enter the office makes us all feel that in Mrs. Moore, we have a sympathetic and understanding friend.

Mrs. Moore's educational background and personality enable her to discharge the many and complicated duties she has to perform in our school office. After graduating from Mexico High School, she enrolled in Cazenovia Seminary. Following the Seminary, she attended Wells College and completed her education at Central City Business Institute.

For two years, Mrs. Moore served as secretary in the New York State Legislature in Albany. Five years ago she was appointed school secretary and has won her rightful place in the hearts of students and staff members.

EL PROFESSOR

OUR PRINCIPAL

It seems impossible that one man can oversee a physical plant valued at over a half million dollars, supervise a transportation system carrying as many passengers as the busses of a small city, organize and lead a personnel of over seventy five employees, take care of the business entailed in such an enterprise and still be responsible for the education of fourteen hundred students.

However, in Mr. Stephen T. Stanton, Mexico Academy and Central School has a man who does all that and one thing more, perhaps more important than all the rest. He has time, in spite of all his duties to be a true friend to everyone. His contribution to the students' development may never be measured but his genuine interest in pupil welfare will always be felt.

OFFICE STAFF

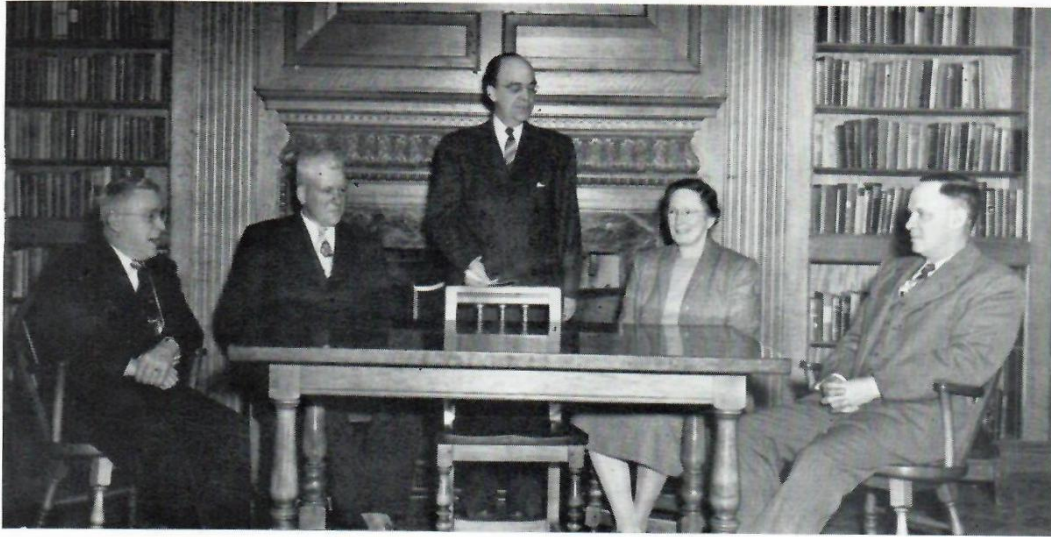

In the course of a day's activities there are numerous occasions on which students and faculty members need to go to school office for help or advice.

Both Mrs. Stuart Moore and Miss Joyce Stone are always ready to extend the help needed or provide the information wanted, interrupting their own tasks to do so.

The numerous details of running the school seem to get done but never at the expense of the good nature and willingness of the two women.

EL GRANDE COUNCIL

L. to R: Mr. Roop, Mr. Frey, Mr. Backus, Miss Trim, Mr. Loomis

To the Board of Education, the members of the annual staff and members of the class of '51 extend their sincere appreciation for making possible this edition of the MEXICONIAN.

EL ANUAL ADMINISTRATIVO

Seated L. to R: D. Nicholson, Asst. Ed.; W. Rurey, Ed.;
S. Newstead, Asst. E.
Standing: T. McAuslan, Adv. Mgr.; S. Davis, Bus. Mgr.

This year the Mexicanian has taken the theme of Mexico—South of the border.

The intent and purpose motivating the theme is basic to our "Good Neighbor" policy. We want to show that although the Mexican people are less advanced in the field of school buildings and equipment, their desire for these things is equal to ours. The manners and means to achievement are different but the end is universal.

CLASE DEL CUARTO AÑO

Salutatory

Through the medium of this publication, I am pleased to welcome you to look at our activities at Mexico Academy and Central School.

We of the Class of 1951, as were other classes before us, are faced by the trials and challenges of life as we graduate from this school. The world finds itself in a conflict which may be a dress rehearsal for a third world war or only a spasm of growing into a unified world order. Which it will become, in some measure, depends upon us.

We feel that through our years of schooling here, we are better fitted to contribute to the desirable outcomes and thus leave a better situation than we found.

Again, welcome to the pages of the 1951 MEXICONIAN. Look carefully to see the actual practices that we believe have prepared us for the future.

John F. O'Mara, Jr.

Valedictory

As valedictorian of the Class of 1951, it is my privilege to express the mingled feelings of this graduating class—a feeling of expectancy and awe at leaving this haven and continuing on to our separate goals; but most of all, there is a sadness in leaving this school which has been a second home to us in the past. It has not only improved our minds but has also developed our poise, personality and self-control.

I think it is suitable at this point to thank our teachers and parents who are so interested in our lives and what becomes of them, for their patience and understanding in the past. We hope to prove worthy of their efforts. We would also like to thank the Board of Education for their work in constantly improving this institution so that many more like us may enjoy their high school life as we have.

As you turn the pages of this 1951 edition of the MEXICONIAN, you will see recorded highlights of our accomplishments and the fun of school life which will remind us and those connected with us that this goodbye is a memorable one in our lives.

La Buenaventura

Well here it is 1971 and our famed class is attending the Annual Costume Fiesta at the famous ballroom of the internationally known La Beck Hotel.

Among the first guests to arrive are Frederica Tucker, dietitian at MACS, (Freddie always was interested in food), and her companion Diane Lunman, famous history teacher replacing Miss Thomas who is away on a well earned vacation.

Coming in with a gush are Howard McLymond and Nelson Moosbrugger, famous water commissioners who are looking over prospects of converting Mexico into a seaside resort.

Approaching the scene is Chief Cheese Tester John O'Mara who is working for the nationally known Colosseburger Cheese Company. He is accompanied by that great rocket racer Tom "Hit and Run" McAuslan. Tom always did go in for speed.

Don't look now but that famous author and playwright Sénor Stanley Ilnitzski has just made his usual spectacular entrance. His autobiography "I Traveled Through Demster and Lived" is a current best seller. Now he is working on a musical, entitled "The Pople Ridge Follies."

Moving in on the gala affair are Merle Sill and Kay Leiboult. Merle is operating the home for Displaced Seniors, while Kay is the president of the Latin American Institute. We wonder how long this will last.

We have been informed that as a result of certain difficulties, Secretary of Agriculture Eugene Blumer and the noted opera singer Mme Doris Anne Nicholson, are unable to attend.

The former Juty Craner and Anne Rider, who have just arrived, are relating the difficult time they had getting away without their spouses.

Graciously, as always, Mrs. Lois Salley (nee Clohosey) of the Salley Chicken Farms notified us that she will supply all the eggs for the fiesta.

Popping into the room is Ted Allen, who resides in Fulton after finding it is much more convenient than traveling back and forth. Invading the party is that charming playboy, Diamond Jim "Frankie" Mayne. Frank just entered the bonds of matrimony for the ninth time.

All feminine heads have turned, for sweeping into the room is "Gorgeous George" Dowie, the nation's champion wrestler. He recently told us that he will soon have tough competition from Chuck "Never Present" Pettit.

Pvt. Owen Clark and Pvt. Paul Spicer are back from the war in Korea. Paul says Miss Thomas was right about the Korean war being a long drawn out affair. Along with these boys is our local State Trooper, Lorne Clark. He has just reported the careful driving of the seniors at MACS; they don't do less than 90 now.

Word has reached us that the famous medic, Lyle Jerrett and his wife, the former Shirley Newstead, will be a bit late because their children have been ill. Lyle recently wrote a pamphlet, "What Makes a Tick Tick." It was a complete sellout.

It looks as though Josephine Scofield and Virginia Allen have really kept their promise not to marry. At the present time they are superintendents at the County Home, and we all agree that they are working hard at their job.

Driving up outside is Miss Sally Davis, owner of the "Ford Dealers Corp." With her is "Snooky" Munroe, famous stage and screen star from RKO Picture studios. He just signed a ten-year contract with David O. Pierce, the greatest director of all times. He is just starting work again after his nervous breakdown following the graduation of the class of 1951.

Entering now are three celebrities whom we are proud to see. The first is Jeanette LaClair, United Nations Delegate from the United States pending Mrs. Roosevelt's resignation. The second is the world renowned chemist, Ruth Elkins, who came chiefly to give her aid on the Hydrogen bomb tests. The third and last is that famous woman basketball player, Anne Clark. She is now starring with the Syracuse Nats.

Miss Mary Sherman, who is enrolled in the Pople Ridge Elementary Teachers College, has just arrived. She will not be able to stay long as she has some classes to attend this afternoon.

Making her entrance is Marilou Hoyt Cronk. She has just come from Catfish Road where she and her hubby are now living. We heard that they recently returned from a stay in the mountain region.

Arriving now is Señor William Rurey who was recently voted the greatest artist of the twentieth century by the Mexican Art Guild. Some of his paintings include such pieces as "Hot Rod", "Speeding On Two Wheels", and his most recent, "The Other Two Wheels".

Miss Ella Mae Brown just came up and told us that she has been chosen from many tall beautiful women to take part of the new Dagmar (Ella Mae always was so tall that she will fit the part perfectly). Along with Ella Mae is Katherine Seeley. Katherine is now married but she also came to the fiesta without her spouse.

Harold Samson and Neil Ryan just arrived back from their expedition through Pople Ridge. What do you know? Another Lewis and Clark. There is another twosome with the explorers. Dribbling in between the dancers is Art Babcock, now the coach at MACS, and with him is Robert New, assistant to Albert Einstein.

The co-owners of the Skunk Hollow Mink Farms, Mr. Allen Edwards and his wife, the former Elaine Myers, just drove up to the front door in their new Cadillac.

Someone else seems to be approaching, Oh! it's Pat Feeney. He is owner of the "Never Late" Delivery Service. The poor people who depend on him.

Now when we see that all the guests have arrived, we start relating old times when we were back in school. And as we talk things over we see how much our class has brought to the world.

— Frederica Tucker, Diane Lunman, Stanley Ilnitzski

"THE CLASS OF 1951" wills and bequeaths Mr. Pierce to the "Class of 1952" if there is anything left of the poor man.

We, the class of 1951, leave this last will and testament on this day of March 5th, in the year of our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-one in the witnesses of

DIANE LUNMAN, FEDERICA TUCKER and STANLEY ILNITZKI

La Historia

In September, 1947, José Galvez arrived in the frontier town of Mexico where he saw some strange looking people presumed to be natives. El presidente Merle Sill introduced himself and his assistants Sally Davis, Freddie Tucker, Marilou Hoyt, Tom McAuslan and Allen Edwards. José noticed that these natives were well represented in the Junior governing body with Merle Sill as their president. The Señoritas Doris Anne Nicholson and Shirley Newstead journeyed to the far away city of Syracuse to represent the little colony at an annual newspaper convention. As the months passed the natives displayed to José their musical ability in both band and chorus while others cavorted on the stage in the one-act play, "By Popular Request," which received third place in native competition. The natives then bade José good bye and journeyed to the distant hills for the summer months.

After the summer fiesta the natives returned to their little town to resume activities. They elected a new president, Harold Samson, whose assistants were Ted Allen, Allen Edwards and Tom McAuslan. This year they were represented in the Senior governing body for the first time by Josie Scofield, Eugene Blumer, John O'Mara and Harold Samson. José was fascinated by the selling of tickets to a movie called "The Luck of the Irish" in order to raise money for the class treasury. These people also had a strange way of entertaining themselves. They participated in games such as varsity basketball and football. The musical organization of the community was led in parades by Señorita Sally Davis who carried a long stick. She was called the "head twirler" but somehow José never did see her twirl any heads. Again they entered the one-act play contest with "Circumstances Alter Cases," which took third place. Once again the natives bade José goodbye and journeyed to their homes in the distant hills.

The coming of the September rains found the natives gathered in their little colony with John O'Mara as the new president and Tom McAuslan, Sally Davis, and Marilou Hoyt as his assistants. This year they were represented in the Senior Government by Allen Edwards and Merle Sill. For entertainment the one-act play "Quiet Please" took first place. They also sponsored two square dances and the Junior Prom with John O'Mara and Sally Davis reigning as king and queen. José could see that these people were well represented on the football, basketball, baseball and track teams. We saw that Freddie Tucker and Marilou Hoyt helped lead the cheering as varsity cheerleaders. Sally Davis retained her position as head twirler with Josie Scofield and Kay Leiboult twirling for her. These people proved to José that they had abilities other than those displayed. Señor Paul Spicer received the Bruce Hanson award. Señor Howard McLymond won the Grange Conservation essay contest while Señor Eugene Blumer walked off with the Agriculture and Grange awards. He also received the Empire Training Award and a trip to the distant settlement of Kansas. For the last the natives bade José goodbye and returned to their homes.

After two months they returned to become subject to Allen Edwards, their new president. His assistants were Jeanette LaClair, Freddie Tucker, and Pat Feeney. Señor Eugene Blumer was elected president of the Senior government with Lyle Jerrett and John O'Mara as representatives. José discovered that these people had different ways of raising money, one of which was the selling of magazines. They sold so many that they received a plaque. Another way they raised money was by the production of a three-act play which was not in native competition as in the past years. This was called "Mr. Barry's Etchings" and succeeded in being a great success. Included in the cast were Ruth Elkins, Marilou Hoyt, Ralph Munroe, Bill Rurey, E'aine Myers, Diane Lunman, Howard McLymond, Freddie Tucker, Pat Feeney, John O'Mara, Doris Anne Nicholson, and Stanley Ilnitzki. Their advisor, Mr. Pierce, directed the play with Señorita Shirley Newstead as his assistant. José again noticed that they were well represented on the basketball, football, baseball, and track teams. Many natives were seen attending the All-State and State Finals from the band and chorus. They held a Sadie Hawkins Dance at which the custom was reversed and the señoritas took the señores. They also held the Senior Ball on June first which turned out very nicely.

On a hot summer night in June 1951 these natives gathered for their last fiesta together. After a series of peculiar ceremonies each native was presented with a rolled piece of paper tied with a ribbon. At the conclusion of the activity each one of the group disappeared. José watched them go little realizing that he was witnessing the end of the class of '51.

Senior High Student Council

Standing: Mr. Stanton, J. Walton, J. Ilnitzki, J. O'Mara, L. Jerrett, W. Sill.

This year the Senior Student Council concentrated on assembly programs. It emphasized more student participation in these programs. Assemblies enjoyed by everyone were presented by Mr. Blank and his music department; the vocal music department under the direction of Mr. Pasquale; Miss Hastings, who told about her trip to Europe; and the students in the American Legion Oratorical Contest. Also the Student Council sponsored an assembly by the Ithaca College Male Chorus. As part of this program, it chose the group of professional assemblies for next year.

As secondary projects, the student council sponsored a booster tag day for the Phoenix football game and provided and supervised student spectator buses to league basketball games.

During baseball season, the council sponsored, organized and conducted a softball league in grades four, five and six.

OFFICERS

President—Suzanne Neff
 Vice President—John Gibbs
 Secretary—Carol Battles
 Treasurer—Nancy Hurlbut

The Junior Student Council has tried to carry out the following plans this year:

- A movie in one of the classics in literature
- Square dancing every Friday.
- Establish a seventh grade award
- A Junior Council publicity week.

During the Publicity Week, the students of the Junior High all took part in forwarding their council. The social studies class had surveys on the topics "What is good in our school?" and "How can we improve our school?" Emblems of blue and white were adopted for each Council member to wear. Most of the students signed the art poster in the hall, backing the Junior Council's standards of honesty, courtesy, industry, good attendance, and clean sportsmanship.

The Junior Council also sponsored the Herald Journal Spelling Bee. In June it gave its annual service awards for leadership.

Art Club

Seated: F. Mayne, vice president; A. Clark, president.
Standing: B. Redhead, treasurer, A. Mitchell, secretary

For the first time in the history of the Art Club, the club has special Art Club pins. They are sterling silver with chain and guard.

Club members earned money by selling MACS booster tags during the football season.

Two or three meetings were spent on the production of finger paintings. A display of this work was made in the main lobby.

The members of the club decided to present two Block M's this year.

The club ended the year by going to dinner and a movie.

Seated clockwise: S. Dowie, S. Souva, F. Mayne, A. Pachoud, C. Cummins, J. Newton, A. Clark, B. Redhead, A. Mitchell.
Standing: Mr. Green.

Lens And Shutter

L. to R.: R. Smithers, president; C. Hunt, treasurer; J. Martens, secretary; E. Henry, vice president.

The Lens and Shutter Club, under the direction of Mr. Aspinwall, has made much progress since its formation in 1948. New equipment has been purchased, the most important of which was a timer and a trimming board.

One of the most exciting things done by the Club this year was a trip to Kodak Park and the George Eastman House in Rochester. Nearly all the members went, accompanied by Mr. Aspinwall, Mrs. Colwell and Mr. Blank. At Kodak Park the group saw how film is made and rolled. At the George Eastman House, which is now a museum, members saw the development of the camera since George Eastman made his first one.

1st. row, L. to R.: Mr. Aspinwall, M. Robinson, E. Henry, R. Smithers, R. Czirr, S. Helper, R. Williams, C. Kelley, D. Davis, B. Brown.

OFFICERS

Seated: H. Samson, secretary, E. Blumer, president; M. Sill, vice president.
Standing: H. McLymond, reporter; J. Williams, sentinel; P. Spicer, treasurer.

In the past year the Future Farmer Chapter has been active under the leadership of Mr Bailey, advisor. Activities started with attendance at the State Convention at Waverly. Eugene Blumer was selected to receive the "Empire Farnes Degree Award," because of his outstanding project achievement during his high school agricultural course. Along with his Degree, Gene recieved an award of $50.00 from the N. Y. Central Railroad to pay train fare to attend the National F. F. A. Convention held at Kansas City

Judging teams ventured to Delhi, Morrisville, anddd Canton At Morrisville, Lorne Clark was high man in Dairy Cattle, winning a loving cup and a heifer calf. While at Canton, the team recieved a ribbon for being high team in Dairy Cattle.

1st. row L. to R.: Mr. Bailey, R. Bellinger, M. Sill, P. Spicer, C. Pettit, W. Sutliff, E. Blumer, L. Clarke, E. Clark.
2nd. row: R. Bracey, O. Clark, H. Samson, J. Williams, W. Taber, F. Baroncini, P. Goldych, R. Flint.

Future Homemakers Of America

OFFICERS

Seated: R. Elkins, treasurer, E. Brown, president, E. Brown, vice president.
Standing: M. Moosbrugger, secretary.

This year the Future Homemakers of America feel that they have accomplished a great deal under the able leadership of Mrs. Abbott, advisor.

The first meeting of the year was held in the homemaking rooms for the purpose of electing officers and planning projects for the year. Mrs. Frances Backus served as chapter mother.

The first event of the year was the initiation of new members. This proved to be a gala affair for everyone except the victims.

Other activities for this year included a faculty Tea which was held on November 15. Popcorn sold at our home basketball games helped the treasury as did the sale of fudge and Christmas cards. At Christmas time the Club sent a box overseas to girls of equal age. In the spring the Mother and Daughter party was held in the homemaking rooms.

Library Club

Seated: J. Halsey, vice president; S. Ilnitzki, president.
Standing: B. Baker, treasurer; B. Looker, secretary.

The Library Club began its 1950-51 year by drawing up, and putting into practice, a new constitution. Regular business meetings have been held with club members reporting to their various tasks.

The social highlight of the year was a Christmas party held in the library, complete with a Christmas tree and a fire in the fireplace.

Plans have been worked out for an enlarged program next year. The club hopes to visit another school library club, as was done at Phoenix this year and also to entertain a group here in Mexico library.

Seated, L. to R.: Mrs. Colwell, B. Baker, E. Barbo, K. Seeley, A. Rider, A. Hill, Mrs. Magnuson.
standing: B. Looker, M. Sherman, L. Sparrowk, H. Mowry, S. Ilnitzki, J. Halsey, B. Horning
D. Bellinger, J. Wise.

Math Club

The purpose of the Math Club is to acquire a greater knowledge of mathematics. The business meeting is usually followed by a discussion of mathematical methods not covered in regular classes or construction of solid geometrical figures.

Members made practical use of such instruments as the alidade and transit by surveying specific plots of land.

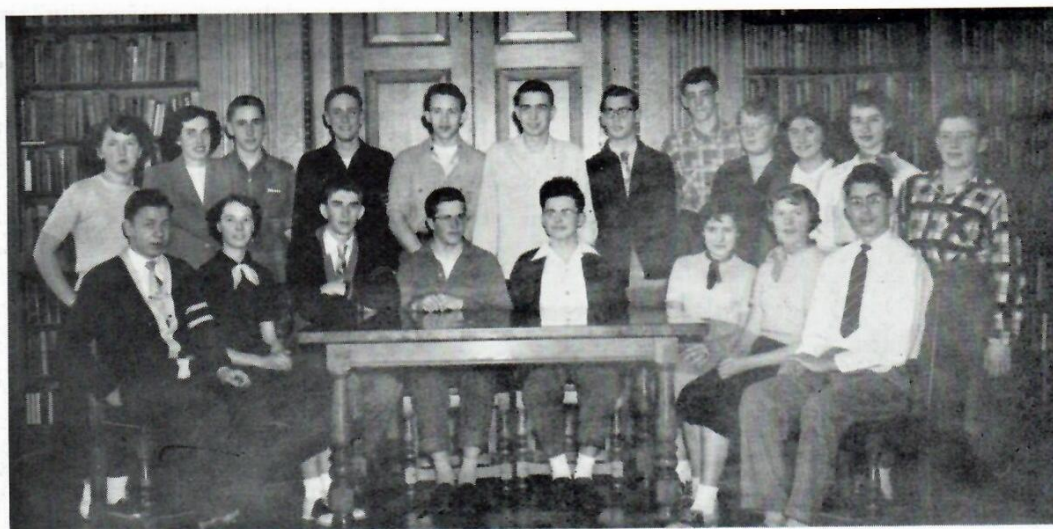

The practical application of math, who uses it, how it helps architects, and how it helps in everyday life are studied.

The club also participated in social activities. This year members co-sponsored the Halloween Dance and went bowling at the Wilcox Memorial Building.

A special feature of the year's program was an evening trip to the Syracuse University Observatory where members saw the practical application of math to astronomy.

Front: C. Runions, secretary; K. Ralph, vice president.
Rear: G. Neff, treasurer; C. Bateman, president.

Seated, L. to R.: R. Hubbard, A. Sherman, G. Neff, C. Bateman, K. Ralph, C. Runions, C. Jacobs, S. Sade.
Standing: B. Jerrett, Miss Hastings, J. Wilcox, T. Allen, C. Davis, W. Wilcox, D. Horning, R. Mason, A. Jones, M. Dawley, L. Jackson, C. Hadcock.

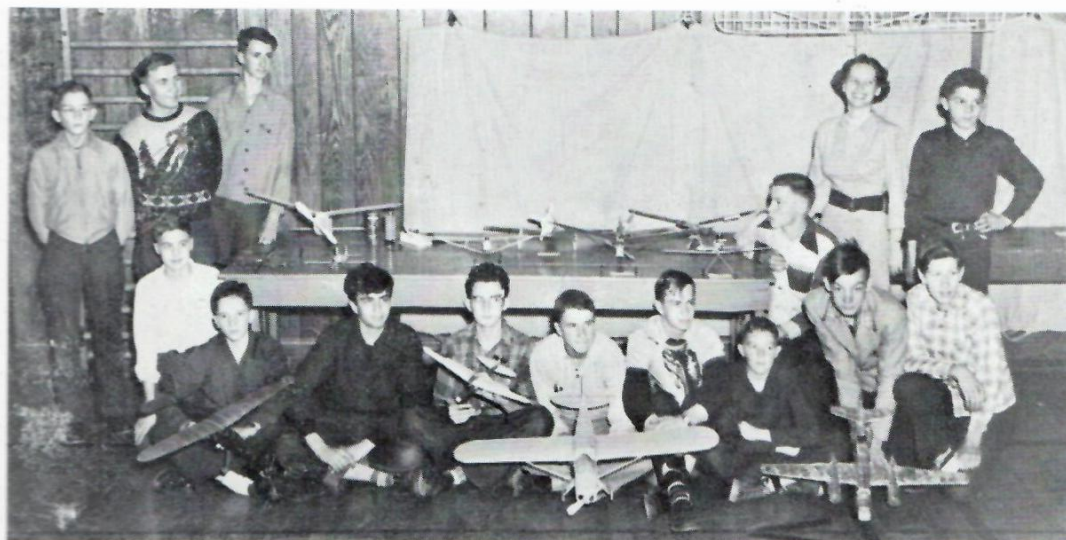

Cloud Breakers Club

Seated: P. Zieski, president.
Standing: J. Beatty, vice president; D. Hanley, treasurer; N. McNett, secretary..

The Cloudbreakers started the year with 14 members. Most of them contributed actively to the fairly successful fall indoor air meet. A bigger meet was planned for late May, but was postponed until early fall to give more members a chance to gain experience. This postponement is also expected to yield larger participation. Miss Ricer, our faculty advisor, has been an invaluable aid in making a success of our club.

Kneeling: R. Clark, J. Gibbs, D. Hanley, J. Bentley, R. Brown, G. Blumer, J. Beatty, N. McNett, R. Hayes, P. Zieske.

History Club

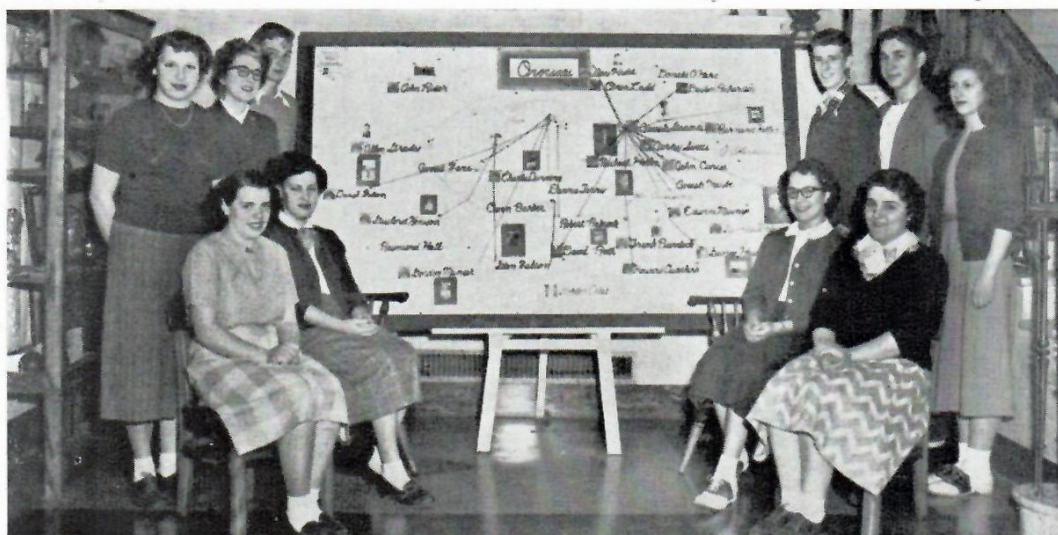

Seated, L to R.: C. Travato, president,
Standing: K. Barney, treasurer; K.
DeMar, secretary.

MACS pupils who are now in the armed services have been the special interest of the History Club this year.

Two boards have been displayed in the school foyer; "MACS BOYS OVERSEAS" and "MACS IN TRAINING IN USA."

At Christmas time the club members made greeting cards with snapshots of the school and of our Overseas display board and sent one to each boy whose name was on the board.

Standing: L. to R.: K. Barney, Miss Thomas, E. Peterson, D. Hansen, J. Ilnitzki, B. McLymond.
Seated: J. Lamb, L. Wilkins, C. Travato, J. Tesoriero.

Varsity Club

Varsity club is made up of members of football, basketball, baseball and track teams who have earned their Block M's. Anyone who has been manager of any of the four sports is entitled to a Block M and four years membership in the club.

The club obtains money from admission charges to the basketball games. This money is turned over to the school, which in turn pays the officials for all the games.

The club tries to encourage sportsmanship among schools and encourage seventh, eighth, and ninth graders to take part in sports.

Members referee games among boys during the noon hour so that the boys will have a chance at a fair game.

1st. row, L. to R.: M. Sill, A. Babcock, G. Neff, J. O'Mara, R. Pierce, R. New, T. Allen, T. McAuslan, W. Sill.
 3rd. row: J. Wilcox, F. Mayne, O. Clark, R. Mason, S. Dowie, E. Blumer.

Leaders' Club

Seated: S. Davis, president. C. Bonanno, vice president.
Standing: S. Newstead, treasurer; J. LaClair, secretary.

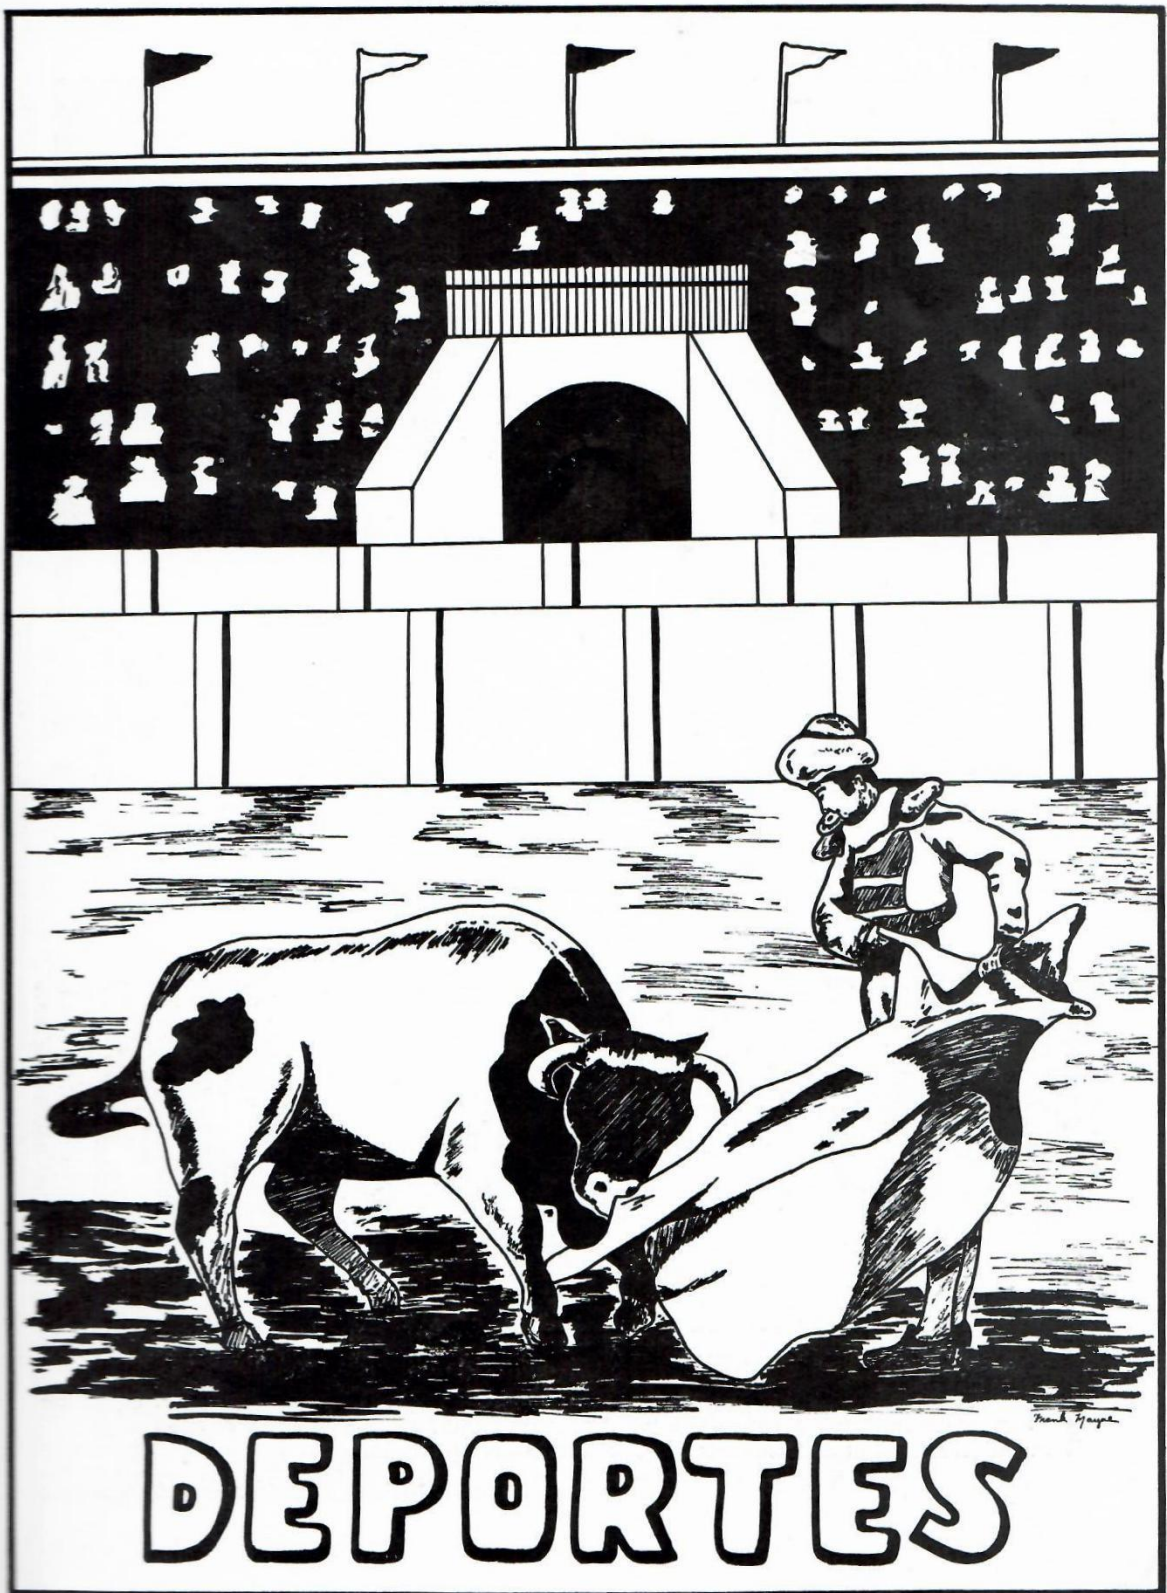

The Leaders' Club is made up of those girls in grades nine through twelve who are interested in athletics, outstanding in sports activities, and who maintained a "B" average in schoolwork.

The principal duty of the club is to help the girls' physical education instructor in various ways.

This year the Club sponsored the annual Christmas Dance. Leaders' Club girls officiated at the noon-hour intramurals for girls.

Seated, L. to R.: R. Crowner, M. Cone, S. Davis, S. Jacobs, L. Sanderson, M. O'Mara, B. Wilde.
Standing: Miss Wolfe, J. Jerrett, M. Hoyt, L. Clohosey, J. LaClair, S. Newstead, C. Bonanno, R. Cronk, F. Tucker, M. Nicholson.

FOOTBALL

1st. row, L. to R.: Ass't. Coach Blazey, R. Munroe, S. Dowie, T. Allen, T. McAuslan, E. Blumer, L. Henderson, F. Mayne, J. Walton, L. Clarke, Coach Palmer.
 2nd. row: S. Helper, mgr.; S. Souva, R. New, G. Neff, L. Sherman, W. Sill, M. Sill, A. Babcock, N. Moosbrugger, H. McLymond, D. DeTor, R. Boutell, N. Souva, mgr.
 3rd. row: R. Kilts, R. Salley, C. Bateman, H. Clark, R. Bellinger, R. Pachoud.

Coach "Met" Palmer's first try at eleven man football proved successful. When a squad of 38 students showed up for the first practice, Coach Palmer was hopeful for another great season.

The team was young and inexperienced with only Art Babcock, Eugene Blumer, Merle Sill and Lorne Clark as veterans. This was a result of the graduation of all last year's championship six man team.

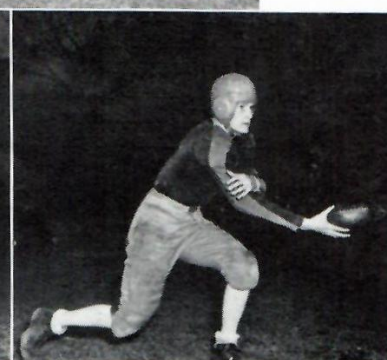

With practically a whole green squad, the MACS football team won 4 out of their games played.

The season's record was as follows:

Mexico 13	Pulaski	7
Mexico 13	Central Square	0
Mexico 0	Pulaski	6
Mexico 19	Altmar-Parish	6
Mexico 20	Phoenix	13
Mexico 12	Camden	13

The hard fought championship game with Camden at the end of the season was lost but the record of never having been beaten on the home gridiron is still intact.

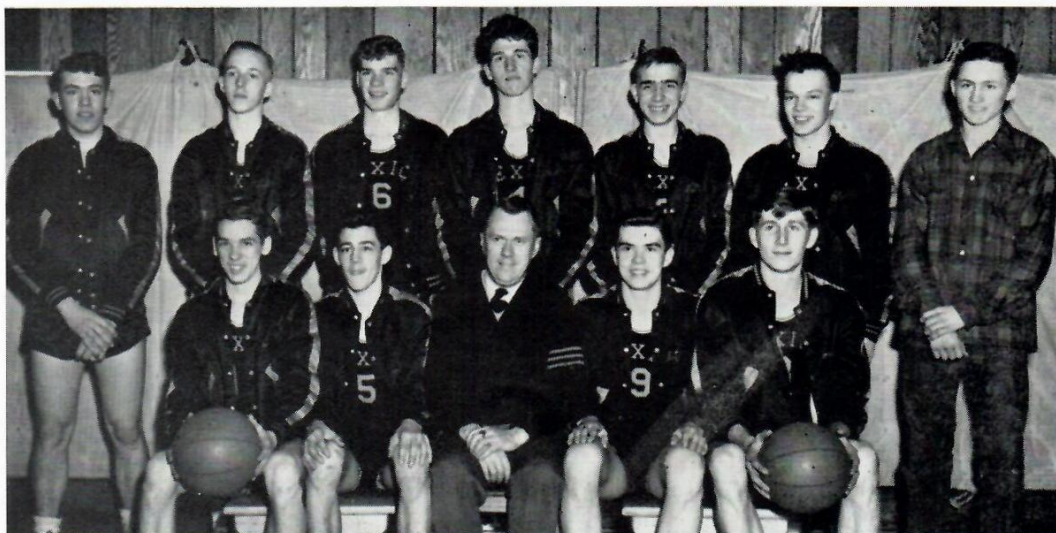

There is hope that next year's eleven man team, with veterans Wayne Sill, Stanley Souva, Jim Walton and Lloyd Henderson on the squad will enjoy as good a season as 1951 in their second year of eleven man competition.

BASKETBALL

Sitting: R. Pierce, R. Mason, Coach Palmer, M. Lutz, D. Hadcock.
Standing: J. O'Mara, R. Munroe, A. Babcock, W. Wilcox, A. Edwards, R. Bellinger, mgr.

Although Coach Palmer had an experienced team from last year, it got off with a poor start by losing its first two league games and winning only two of its first five starts.

After avenging a defeat at the hands of Red Creek, the team lost the services of its captain and one of its high scorers, Mat Lutz, who had a 11 point average for nine games.

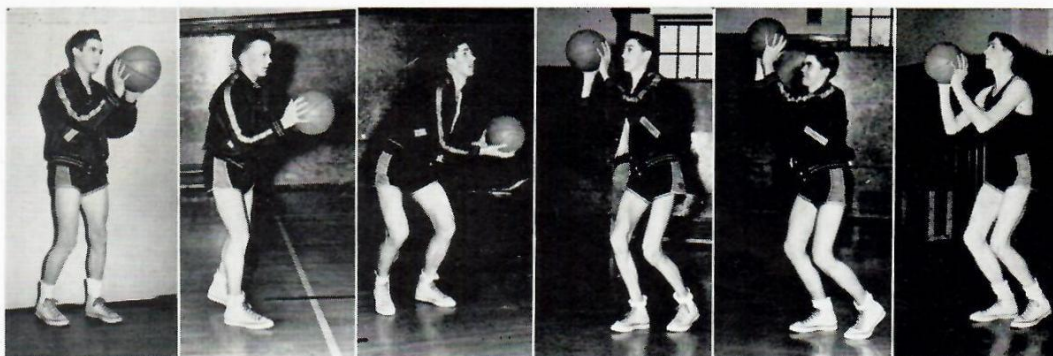

MACS dropped its second start against Central Square, after taking seven straight games. The loss of another starter, Allen Edwards, through injury, resulted in a defeat in the last league game at Phoenix.

Among individual scorers, Art Babcock was high with 203 points, followed by Bob Mason with 148 points.

The schedule of 14 games, gave MACS an overall record of 9 wins and 5 losses, with a league record of .500 average.

This year's Freshman squad had a disastrous season, playing an eight game schedule with no wins. However, the squad gained in valuable experience which will serve them well next year.

Front: W. Meeks.
Middle: J. Gibbs, J. Backus, J. Sachel.
Standing: Coach Blazey, D. Bellinger, J. Wild, R. Hubbard.

TRACK

1st. row, L. to R.: M. Sill, L. Clark, S. Souva, N. Moosebrugger, P. Feeney.
2nd. row: Coach Blank, R. New, E. Blumer, C. Bateman, R. Munroe, G. Neff.
3rd. row: R. Robinson, N. McNett, C. Hunt, R. Salley.

With the thawing of winter snow came the first time trials of the season. Twenty-two lusty candidates, eager to run, made the team.

Five veteran runners; Pat Feeney, Paul Webster, Frank Mayne, Stanley Souva, and Lorne Clark formed the nucleus of the 1950 team.

The season opened April 29 with a trip to Utica for the Relay Carnival A series of team victories followed this trip with the Mexico team winning over North Syracuse and Baldwinsville and Pulaski and Lowville in triangular meets and Camden in a dual meet. Next came the county meet at Oswego. Then came a bid to Watertown for the Watertown Invitational Meet. A return to Utica ended the season.

At the county meet in Oswego, no team points were computed. Merle Sill, however, kept the Mexico's broad jump claim. Jim Magnuson tied with a Fulton competitor for the Pole Vault record. At the Invitational, the Mexico squad piled up enough points to tie for fourth place in the eleven school field. At the second Utica meet all schools in this section of the state met and selected representatives to participate in the famed West Point Meet. The relay team, consisting of Merle Sill, Lorne Clark, Nelson Moosbrugger and Pat Feeney placed third in the toughest run of the year.

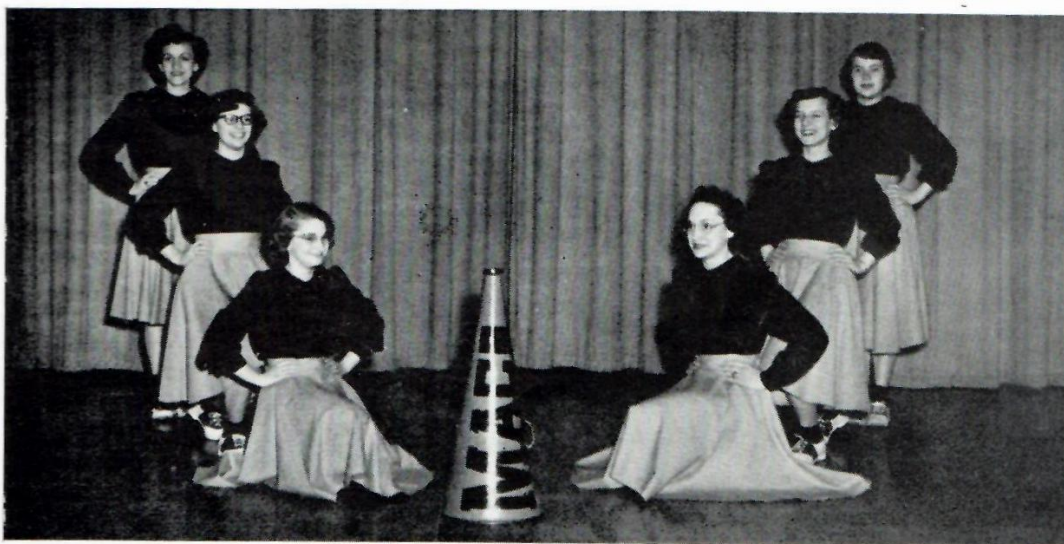

The top point winner of the season was Merle Sill with 54 points, followed by Pat Feeney with 39, Lorne Clark with 31, Paul Webster with 29 and Eugene Blumer with 27. These sure point winners, with the exception of Paul Webster helped spark the team in '51. Many promising veterans returned such as: Bob New, Stanley Souva, Sherman Dowie, Charles Bateman, Don Hadcock, Ralph Munroe, and George Neff. A large turnout of underclassmen filled in the spots left by graduation.
